

GROUND CONTROL STATION GCS-200

Characteristics

The GCS-100 is the transportable unmanned ground station providing real time imagery in a compact transportable package, within to end encryption this is by far one of the best mission uploaders on the market.

Description

This software allows the user to configure our software to any type of drone it is fully customizable will operate on windows and Linux. This is a closed source software within to end encryption.

