

GROUND CONTROL STATION GCS-300

Characteristics

The GCS-300 is the transportable unmanned ground station providing real time control in imagery in a compact transportable package, within to end encryption this is by far one of the best mission uploaders on the market

Description

This software allows the user to configure our software to any type of drone it is fully customizable will operate on windows and Linux. This is a closed source software within to end encryption.

